Camp Information

This is the opportunity for kids to have loads of fun while discovering and enjoying the game of tennis. Values gained by children through the Valter Paiva Tennis Academy program are:

- Enhancement of social and behavioral skills
- The learning of positive attitude and good sportsmanship
- The realization of continual practice to bring greater success
- Learning that “perfect practice” makes perfect
- Constant participation develops agility, coordination and fitness
- Understanding and proper use of rest time and food intake
- Strong participation improves their tennis skills

The Junior Camp program offers training sessions for the beginner to the college level player, ages 5-18 years old. Valter personally oversees the Junior Camp Program and is available for one-on-one private lessons with players of all levels. Enrollment is limited to ensure the highest standard of individual attention. Some weeks are completely filled prior to the start of camp. Please enroll well in advance to secure a spot. Private lessons with Valter should also be booked early.

All students need to fill out a registration form in advance with payment in full. Cancellations are a credit on file to be used at a later date.

Prizes and awards are given out weekly!

10 and under Tennis - Orange Ball, Red Ball & Green Dot Ball - USTA Format

Kids will learn faster and gain more confidence by utilizing our various tennis adaptations with smaller racquets, court size, ball size and simplified fun drills. Bring your friends and let the fun begin!
